

OUR FIGHTING BOYS ARE CALLING---ANSWER THE Y. M. C. A. APPEAL

More eloquent and more appealing grows the call of the United States Government for liberal and quick support of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. Other cities of the United States are meeting their apportionment; some are increasing it.

Fayette county is called upon to raise $10,000.00 to enable the Y. M.

C. A. to carry on a constructive program of wholesome recreation inside the camps of the United States, and in Russia, Belgium, Italy, Roumania, France and Egypt. The Young Women's Christian Association is called upon by the Government to throw strong lines of moral defense around the various training camps and cantonments to guard the soldiers against the insidious dangers that lurk around every community in which men are gathered in large numbers.

The Playground and Recreation Association of America is called upon to work with the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., the Knights of Columbus and the Young Men's Hebrew Association in promoting and systematizing intelligent community recreation—recreation within and without the various camps, and all for the purpose of conserving the army morale, dispelling homesickness in the soldiers and to give them the red-blooded humanizing treatment they are entitled to.

Never before in the history of this country has the Federal Government looked to the voluntary co-operation of individuals and organizations as in the present crisis. It is clearly the duty of every one not engaged in fighting to minister to the needs, the social needs, of the men who are laying aside everything to defend the nation. All the campaigns are consolidated in Fayette county.

Major General Glenn, in command of Camp Sherman, said Thursday:

"By making every effort to appeal to and call forth the best there is in these men—by maintaining well-selected, wholesome meeting places with libraries, reading matter and writing material, through entertainment and health athletics and other things that create a wholesome and contented frame of mind in these conscripts, the Y. M. C. A. is of real value to the army and country, and should receive the support of every American citizen regardless of sex and age."

CAN'T SEE COLLAPSE OF "SUB" WARFARE

American Experts Do Not Agree With View that Lull Means Mastery of Menace.

Secretary Daniels Says U-boat Has Failed to Reach Germany's Claim, but Has Done Great Damage.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, November 16.—American naval experts, it was made plain today, do not agree with the view that the lull in submarine activities indicates a collapse of the U-boat campaign or that the anti-submarine measures have proven wholly effective. They agree progress is being made against the menace but prefer to postpone judgment on whether the U-boat has been eliminated as a fact until the theory has been more thoroughly tested. Meanwhile, the United States navy will continue its preparation to deal with the menace.

It was said officially at the navy department today that there was nothing to forecast the possibility of a very heavy toll of ships next week, or at any subsequent period, and that varying results from week to week still were expected.

Secretary Daniels authorized this statement:

"The submarine menace has not proved the decisive factor in the war that the Germans predicted it would be. It has done great harm which should not be underestimated and is still a menace.

"Its purpose was to starve England by August, and this, of course, it has failed to do."

FLOOD GATES ARE OPENED ON INVADERS

Italians by Flooding Plains of Venice and Lombardy Hope to Check Progress of Austro-German's Flanking Movements.

Lord Northcliffe Is Disgruntled With Lloyd George's Attitude.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Embattled for the protection of Venice and Lombardy the Italians have opened the flood gates of the Piave and Sile rivers northeast of Venice to check the Austro-Germans who have crossed the Piave near Griesolera.

By this the Italians hope to prevent any movement to flank the right wing of the Italian army along the Piave.

Near the Adriatic, the Piave and Sile rivers are contained in canals running through the land at or below the sea level and which stretches for many miles, along the Adriatic from the Venetian Lagoon.

With the rivers allowed to flow unchecked it would appear to make Austro-German efforts in this region barren of results.

In the mountains between Asiago and the Piave the great pressure of the Italians are straightening out their lines and the enemy has progressed only slightly.

Fresh attempts to cross the Piave have been rendered futile by the Italian defense.

Lord Northcliffe is dissatisfied, he says, with regard to the present relations of Premier Lloyd George with the United States, and has refused to take charge of the British air ministry as proposed by Lloyd George.

ATTENDANTS ARE INDICTED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cincinnati, O., November 16.—A. C. Barlow and James E. Brown, two attendants at the Longview Hospital for the Insane, were indicted on charges of first degree murder in a partial report made by the grand jury conducting the investigation at the hospital today.

At the same time 100 physicians were subpoenaed to appear before the Court immediately. From these will be chosen 50 or 60 to go to the hospital at once and inspect every patient to see whether they have been mistreated.

The indictments returned today were made in connection with the death of Sabin Hollister, a patient at Longview last week.

The police allege that both Barlow and Brown have admitted beating and kicking the patient, but each places the major blame on the other.

NORTHCLIFFE'S STAND CAUSE OF COMMENT

Globe Says America Feels that British Rulers Have Muddled War.

(By Associated Press Cable)

London, November 16.—The newspapers comment extensively on Lord Northcliffe's letter to Lloyd George in which he declined appointment as air minister and criticized the government on the ground that it was dallying with such problems as unity of war control, eradication of sedition, mobilization of man power and introduction of compulsory food rationing.

The Globe says the gravest of all Lord Northcliffe's warnings is that concerning the temper of the American nation, that the American people think, and think rightly, that Great Britain's rulers have muddled the war.

This newspaper declares the letter, while addressed to the Prime Minister, is in truth written to the nation.

$726 IS AMOUNT RAISED THURSDAY BY FAYETTE MEN

Total of $1033 for Two Days Is Expected to Show Decided Increase Tonight—Howard Hagler Sets the Pace—Every Person Must Do Their Patriotic Part.

"Team number five will report its share of the $10,000 when the campaign closes next Monday night" was the declaration of Captain Howard Hagler of the team, in addressing some 25 workers at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night.

The challenge is being accepted by other teams some of whom have been discouraged because of the comparatively small number of men working, and the equally comparatively little time that has been devoted to the work, the campaign not starting in this county until Wednesday. And as a result of the inspiring words of Captain Hagler the other workers are now endeavoring to bring up their end of the total amount by the time set—next Monday night.

Thursday night the workers reported $726 for the day, or a total of $1,033 for the two days, and when the reports are in tonight they expect to show a decided increase in the grand total.

Mr. Hagler delivered the chief address of the evening, and stated that it was simply up to the workers to raise the quota allotted to Fayette county, and that raising the money was a secondary matter, for the reason that while it was necessary to raise the money, it was more important to get the citizens in general to realize that the country is at war, and that the situation is such that the civilian population must stand behind the army and navy and work to win the war, or the war would go against the United States, and the result would be disastrous in the extreme.

Chairman H. C. Ireland pointed out that Fayette county was now by far the lowest county in the entire district, and that work of the hardest kind must be done to place Fayette in the ranks of the other patriotic counties which are doing their part in the work of raising funds for the war work of the Y. M. C. A. In this country and wherever the soldiers or sailors are sent.

Not a single cent of the funds goes to pay the workers—every worker is doing the work because he realizes the necessity of it, and because it is a patriotic duty, so that the person who contributes to the fund is doing much less than the workers, who are giving their time from their own work and then going into their pockets liberally to help raise the fund.

Every man, woman and child in Fayette county who can give something is urged to do so at once.

NOT GUILTY SAYS JURY IN DAVIS CASE

After being out a little more than one hour, Thursday evening, the jury in the case of Ohio against Reynolds Davis, charged with hog stealing, returned a verdict of not guilty.

The case was tried before Judge Carpenter and the jury, and the defendant was represented by Maddox & Maddox.

The evidence submitted was chiefly circumstantial, and the accused declared that he had purchased the hogs from some gypsies. He was substantiated in this by another witness, and as the prosecution had no evidence to the contrary, the verdict of not guilty was the result.

One of the three men indicted with Davis was taken in charge some time ago for deserting from Company M, and another of the accused men is at Camp Sherman. Reports at first were to the effect that both men were in France.

ROBERT LANUM IS NOW NEAR BATTLE FRONT IN FRANCE

Son of Dr. C. V. Lanum, in U. S. Aerial Service, Is Ready for Duty Against Boches—Vessel Bearing Squadrilla Was Attacked by Submarine, But a Depth Bomb Blows Sub to Bits.

Dr. C. V. Lanum is in receipt of a number of letters written by his son, Robert Lanum, of the 35th Squadron of the United States Flying Corps, now located a short distance from the battle front in France.

The letters, some of them were written in September, and others in October, arrived in a bunch Thursday evening, and the last one written states that "the boys" are all well and in the very best of spirits, and have had a "little fun" with the enemy while in training not a great distance from the battle front.

The 35th is located in sight of the Switzerland Alps, and the members of the squadrilla pronounce goat cheese one of the greatest delicacies obtainable in the camp.

On the way over to France the vessel bearing the squadrilla was attacked by a submarine, the alarm being given while the men were at dinner, but the escorting destroyers located the submarine after it had been forced to dive and blew it to bits with one of the new Edison Depth bombs, which have proven the most deadly instrument for destroying the undersea craft after they have submerged. During the attack and the destruction of the boat there was no excitement among the men who are used to risking their lives.

The squadrilla of which Robert is a member is pronounced one of the best in Uncle Sam's service, and will, in all probability, soon be actively engaged in ridding Germany, locating batteries, and rendering other service of a most effective nature.

LOCAL MAN DRAWS A TERM FOR DESERTING

One soldier was sentenced to 15 years and two others to ten years imprisonment each at Fort Leavenworth, and all three were dishonorably discharged from the United States army, in decisions of the general court, sitting at the Columbus barracks, division headquarters.

Private Albert Davis, Sanitary detachment, Third Pennsylvania infantry, was found guilty on eleven charges, and given 15 years. The specifications included charges of marrying Mary Max at Columbus, while having another wife living, passing himself off as a first lieutenant, forging a $35 check and a $55 check, and being absent without leave.

Private Harrison Haws, Company M, 166th infantry, was convicted of deserting at Washington C. H., August 12, 1917. He was caught here September 13. The court gave him four months imprisonment and ordered two-thirds of his pay for that period forfeited.

Other men of Company M who have been arrested for deserting, will probably be dealt with in somewhat similar manner as Haws.

TO FURNISH WOOD TO MEET FAMINE

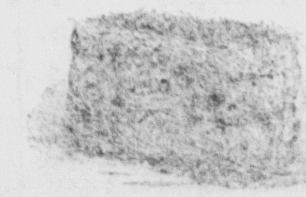

H. R. Rodecker, realizing the gravity of the coal famine and the likelihood of a heavy demand for wood for fuel, this winter, has contracted for a piece containing several acres of timber and now has a force of men busy working the timber into lengths which can be readily handled for fuel purposes. Within a short time he expects to have an abundant supply of wood ready for those who require it for fuel, and at reasonable prices.

The prospect of a coal shortage throughout the winter is such that many persons are preparing to burn wood, and the venture made by Mr. Rodecker is expected to solve the problem. He is also obtaining coal, and will probably open a general office in the very near future.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Ireland hospitably opened their home Thursday evening at an informal reception, honoring their former beloved pastor, Rev. F. J. Henness, of Michigan, N. Dakota. In the receiving line were Rev. Henness, Rev. D. H. Rejy and three elders of the McNair Memorial church, and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonham, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mansfield.

Over a hundred former parishioners and friends called during the evening and enjoyed renewing acquaintances with the honor guest.

Rev. Henness, who is a very fluent and able speaker, gave an impromptu talk to the guests, touching upon his work since he left this city.

Beautiful music was rendered throughout the evening. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Reeder pleasantly entertained at dinner Friday noon. Rev. P. J. Henness of Michigan, N. Dakota, Rev. D. H. Rejy, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Ireland.

The spacious country home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Nunn on the Prairie presented an animated scene on Tuesday evening when a delightful surprise was sprung on their son Marion.

The guests had gathered before the coming was realized, but the young host soon recovered from his surprise and the evening was merrily spent in music, games, contests and various other amusements. In a guessing contest Miss Gladys Downs and Mr. Roy Baughn won first prize a box of stationery, Miss Martha Wood and Emmitt Mickle winning the consolation. On a bird contest, Miss Arthelia Patterson and Mr. Oliver Wood of Good Hope won first prize and Miss Ines Baughn and Sherman Allison the consolation.

The surprise was planned and successfully carried out by Mrs. Nunn, Misses Ethel Pope and Ilo and Yvonne Baker.

Sandwiches, pickles, ice cream, wafers and mints were served. Following the refreshments games were renewed until near the mid-night hour after which the guests numbering about fifty departed for their homes reporting the affair of memorable pleasure.

Those who participated were Misses Martha Wood, Hazel McCord, Mae Sollars, Ethel Pope, Ruth Mowery, Ilo Baker, Ethel Nisley, Marie Hines, Hazel Patterson, Opal Davids, Gladys McCord, Helen Carr, Arthelia Patterson, Yvonne Baker, Helen Smith, Ines Baughn, Martha Minnick, Gladys Downs, and Jessie Underwood, Messrs. Charles Burke, Leonard Rine, Oliver Wood, Walter Hutchison, Edwin Hidy, Marion Mark, Emmitt Mickle, Roy Baughn, Wayne Elliott, Russell Mark, Edwin McCord, Charles Campbell, Edward Elliott, Eber Coil, Sherman Allison, Floyd Baughn, Arthur Freshour, Loren Hynes, Ralph Pope, Harvey Porter, Stanley Mark, Austin Wipert, Alva Mitchell, Vivian Baughn, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Scott of Sabina, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pope and Mr. and Mrs. Wert Baughn.

The sum added to the Red Cross Shop fund by the chain of Red Cross teas has already passed the hundred dollar mark, with quite a number of the hostesses having yet to make report and a large number of women pledged to give these teas having not yet announced their dates.

The Red Cross workers are much gratified over the success of the teas both socially and financially, but it must be admitted that the greatest joy is over the amount of money which is being so willingly raised for the purchase of materials for this necessary work.

Because of the deep interest in war relief work with which women generally are occupied these days, there is very little entertaining being done and the affairs that are given are marked by simplicity. But one needs to keep heartened when there is so much gloom over war conditions and it would seem to be wiser to derive a little stimulus and pleasure from congenial spirit than to put the ban on every thing bright.

The Red Cross social affairs as a means of social activity, simple yet enlivening and at the same time little by little replenishing the treasury, has been carried out in many cities.

The Red Cross tea seems especially opportune as while visiting the guests complete the greatly needed knitted sets.

Thursday afternoon Miss Lavon Cockerill was hostess at a tea both cheery and pretty. There is no attempt made in the line of elaborate entertainment at these affairs, just the simplest of afternoon teas.

Among one of the most delightful social events of the season in the Seldon neighborhood was a surprise party, given Thursday evening by Miss Effie and Mr. Carey Henkle in honor of their brother, Mr. Will L. Henkle; the occasion being his birthday.

The evening was spent in games and an amusing contest in which Misses Leona Eakins and Addie Engle won the prizes. A dainty collation was served before the guests departed wishing Mr. Henkle many returns of the happy day.

Those present were: Vada Brakefield, Grace Fults, Addie Engle, Frances Howland, Ella Sever, Zoe Colaw, Leona Eakins, Walter Engle, Glenn Bush, Chas. Fults, Jno. Highly R. N. Stucky.

An indoor picnic was greatly enjoyed Thursday evening, by the girls of Mrs. Harry Rodecker's Sunday School class of the M. E. Church, at the home of Miss Inis Thompson.

Victrola music added to the evening's pleasure.

Half a hundred Daughters of the American Revolution responded Thursday afternoon to invitations issued by Mrs. James A. Crawford for a "Silver Tea" in the interest of the Hostess House to be erected by this organization at Camp Sherman.

It was a charming affair, to which Mrs. Crawford's beautiful home lent added attraction and shaggy pink chrysanthemums a note of harmonious color.

No patriotic gathering now-a-days is without its busy knitters, and sweaters and scarfs grew rapidly while the women chatted and enjoyed the dainty afternoon tea served.

The response of the Daughters in silver offerings was very liberal and those Daughters not present are sending their's to the treasurer, Mrs. E. N. Holloway.

Mrs. Crawford was assisted in the hospitalities by Messdames Parker Tanzey, Ray Maynard, R. M. Hughey, M. S. Daugherty, Misses Rose McLean and Nelle Cissna.

THE PASSING OF MRS. ANNIE HAYS

After months of service, sickness, and intense suffering, borne with great patience, and Christian fortitude, Mrs. Annie Hays passed quietly into the spirit world at 7:30 Friday morning, Nov. 16th, 1917. The best medical skill and faithful loving care was given by loved one throughout her illness.

She was the daughter of Mr. Robert Russel, and Mrs. Sarah Herod Russel, born September 10th, 1842 at Rushtown, Ohio.

She was the widow of the late Mr. John Hays, who died, May 25th, 1903 to whom she was united in marriage, May 12th 1867. There were born to them six children, Harry, Ida, Mrs. John Durant, Mrs. Howard McLean and Ethel and Orland, who passed away in infancy.

There are also two surviving half sisters, Mrs. A. K. Murphy of Rushtown, O., and Mrs. Rhoda Cole, of Hollister, Cal.

The Hays family has been prominent in the business, social and religious life of this community during their long residence here of forty-one years. The home part of this time was on their prosperous farm, and later in town.

Mrs. Hays was the oldest living member of the First Baptist Church of this city where she was one of the most faithful workers, and worshippers for forty years.

She was a woman of fine intellectual qualities, good judgment, and generous impulse, ever ready with a helping hand and a kind encouraging word. A loving devoted wife and mother and a good neighbor.

INJURIES FATAL TO PEARL ECKLE

After lingering some two weeks, suffering of blood poisoning and other complications arising from injuries sustained while cranking an automobile, Mr. Pearl Eckle, well known Madison township farmer, passed away at his home at 1:15 Friday morning, at the age of 33 years.

Mr. Eckle sustained a fractured leg when the automobile backfired and was not aware of the seriousness of the injury until lockjaw developed. The lockjaw gave way to treatment and blood poisoning developed since which time Mr. Eckle has been growing weaker.

The deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Eckle, residing one mile northeast of this city on the Columbus pike. Besides the parents, the deceased leaves a widow and two children, Roderick, 19 and Marie, 8. Also two brothers, Col. M. W. Eckle, well known auctioneer, and Mr. Ernest Eckle, farmer, of northern Fayette. His death comes as a great shock to his host of friends throughout the city and county.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, at the Madison Mills M. E. Church, and interment will be made at Madison Mills.

Poetry For Today

IN A STARVING WORLD
 My plenty shames me when I think this bread.
 This meat, of which I have too much would be
 As manna sent from God to famished ones
 Across the sea—pale woman, fainting child.
 Old man, or soldier maimed for our own sakes.
 Here, take the half, and more, and daily take.
 And lade it on the giant ships, with share
 From myriad tables in our land, and send
 And send and send, past cursed foes
 that lurk
 Beneath the waves, through tempest
 fog and ice,
 To them who cry for crumbs as Dives
 moaned
 For drops in hell to cool his parching
 tongue.
 Here, take! 'Tis consecrate, as is the Bread
 And Wine of Holy Sacrament! 'Tis God's,
 Not mine! His dying children lack
 and call,
 Let me not eat in peace till this is done.
 Let me not sit down about my board
 But specters come and stare at me,
 and ghosts
 Stand by my side, and cries of children smite—
 My ears and ring through all my brain and soul—
 Until I set apart this holy thing,
 Due portion of my fullness in this time.

There is, by God's most wondrous chemistry,
 Enough upon the planet in this hour
 To keep the lives that are against the day
 When earth will fructify and bear
 again.
 Thou hast within thy walls, at thy command,
 More than thy needs. Bring forth—dis-vide—disgorge—
 And then, with better heart and appetite.
 Partake, in joy, thy meat. But not before!
 While Hunger mourns and thou repliest not,
 Let food be tasteless on thy lips, and gall
 And wormwood to thy sated, selfish
 tongue.
 —Calvin Dill Wilson.

THE ROCKY ROAD TO WHERE?

The War Board of Ohio Today Says:

What are you doing to save sugar?
 The American people have been using over seven pounds a month per person.
 We are trying to send enough sugar to France to maintain there the ration of one pound per month per person.
 The result is a sugar shortage.
 Sugar economy is a war time necessity.
 Many housewives have been trying out interesting sugarless recipes.
 Your grandmother's cook books may furnish some good tips, for a century ago they knew nothing of ordinary white sugar.
 Here are some suggested sugarless
 recipes for desserts.
 Date Pudding—Arrange in a greased pudding dish alternate layers of flaked rice and chopped dates until the dish is three-quarters full.
 Fill dish with cold milk and bake in moderate oven three hours.
 Baked Apples—Prepare apples as usual for baking. Fill centers with honey instead of sugar, add a few chopped nuts if desired. Place in pan and add three-fourth of a cup of water and one-fourth of a cup of honey. Bake as usual.

SCORES LABORERS OUT ON A STRIKE HALTING WAR WORK

By Associated Press Dispatch.
 Cleveland, O., Nov. 16.—Mr. E. A.
 Eustis, special agent for the Great Lakes district of the United States Shipping Board, has returned from Washington, where he reported to the recent strike action of sixty Cleveland pipefitters, working on two lake steamers being cut in two for the passage through the Welland Canal for use in the Atlantic trade in transporting ammunition and other supplies to the allies.

The men went on strike, making no demand for increased wages but demanding the recognition of the closed shop principle. In order to complete the work of cutting in two the boats, it was necessary to transfer the two steamers from Cleveland to Buffalo.

In a statement, issued recently,
 Mr. Eustis points out the viewpoint of Secretary of Labor Wilson and the Commission of Labor created by the Council of National Defense in regard to labor controversies during the present crisis as follows:

"Materials are as essential in this war as soldiers. The modern army with machine guns and rapid-fire artillery consumes enormous quantities of ammunition and other supplies. The work of producing these supplies is as important as is the training of the army. It is just as important that labor engaged in war work obey their orders as it is that soldiers should the same.

"Whatever the merits of labor controversies this is clearly not the time to stop work and try to settle them.

"The Government and the country expect the laboring men to do their part just as much as they expect the soldiers to do theirs. Their duty is to stick to their jobs and do their work, that our armies may be supplied. Questions of the closed shop and other conditions affecting the laborer must be allowed to wait until the great vital question of the war has been settled."

 States hydrographic office here.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN FIRST CLASH

 ican prisoners being taken along the Rhine-Marne Canal, which crosses the battlefield twenty-five miles southeast of Nancy.

HAISELDEN DENOUNCED

(By American Press)

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Paul Hodzima, 2½, the latest defective to be sentenced to death by euthanasia, was the object of a clash between the city health department and a coterie of physicians. Dr. Herman Spalding, representing the health department, submitted a report to the effect that
 "the present administration of opiates to terminate life is inexcusable." Dr.
 Harry Haiselden, who has been administering "God given drugs" to the Hodzima baby, took the child to the German-American hospital, where a number of physicians examined it.
 Seventeen of them signed a statement endorsing Dr. Haiselden's course.
 Under instructions of the health board, the police took the death dealing drugs from the parents of the child.

RAILROADS FACING GREATEST PROBLEM IN THEIR HISTORY

Chicago, November 16.—During the coming winter American railroads will face the greatest transportation problem in their history," said Fairfax Harrison, Chairman of the Railroads' War Board.

"The war demands have increased the railroads' burden virtually overnight by millions of tons of freight."

"Some conception of this may be gleaned from the fact that the additional service demanded this year is equivalent to carrying 120,000,000,000 tons of freight one mile."

"Moreover, frankly, the railroads will have to handle it with inadequate facilities. Cars, locomotives, terminals, all the other equipment, track space—cannot be built overnight."

"To make the situation more difficult, practically all the steel which can be spared for locomotives and cars has been apportioned for use abroad either by the United States or by our allies. As a result, United States railroads must face their task with practically no increase in equipment."

"Despite conditions, the railroad army is not pessimistic. It is, on the contrary still on tip toe to control the tremendous traffic so suddenly thrust upon it. But all railroad men now recognize that to keep pace the railroads will not only have to increase their own efforts, but must count upon the shippers, consignees and public as a whole to increase the co-operation they have so generously given since the United States entered the war."

"During the war food, munitions and material must be kept moving to the seaboard, lumber to the shipyards, men must be kept moving to the cantonments—and all these movements, as far as possible, must be made without serious interference with the regular commercial traffic."

LAST DAY TO SEND PACKAGES DIRECT

The sending of parcel post packages to the American Expeditionary Forces in France, under the 7-pound limit, by way of New York, expired yesterday, November 15th.

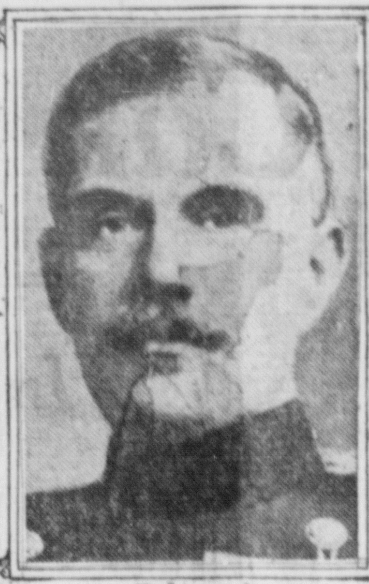

Packages, limited to 20 pounds in weight can still be sent by way of Hoboken, New Jersey, to be delivered by the War Department. To insure prompt delivery to that point, prior to December 5th, they should be mailed at the local postoffice during the month of November. All packages must be in wooden boxes.

FEAR THE WAR COUNCIL WILL FORCE HAIG AND ROBERTSON TO RETIRE FROM CONTROL

SIR DOUGLAS HAIG

SIR WILLIAM ROBERTSON

Rumors of the impending retirement of Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, British commander-in-chief of the British armies in France, and General Sir William Robertson, chief of the Great General Staff, persist, according to dispatches from London. It is said that the retirement of these two officials will be one of the first acts of the newly created Inter-Allied War Council.

GEORGE C. HAYNES FUNERAL SERVICES

Funeral services of much impressiveness, conducted by ministers who had been close to his innermost life, honored George C. Haynes at the home on Columbus Avenue Thursday afternoon.

The large outpouring of people, personal friends, representatives business men, lodge brethren, no less than the eloquence of spoken word and the wealth of floral remembrance were deeply expressive of the high regard in which the Mr. Haynes had been held in the community.

Three ministers took part in the service, Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Rev. Frederick E. Ross, of Columbus, former pastor, and Rev. P. J. Hennes, of Michigan, N. D., formerly pastor of the McNair Presbyterian church.

Rev. Cherrington made the opening remarks and read the hymn "Lead Kindly Light," which had been the greatest solace to Mr. Haynes during his long illness. He read a brief memoir, beautifully written by Hon. C. A. Reid, and covering the salient points in Mr. Haynes' life and character.

This was supplemented after prayer by Rev. Hennes, with a most appreciative tribute by Rev. Ross.

It was fitting that from years of close association and personal friendship Rev. Ross should make the address of the services. He referred with much tenderness to those hours in the hospital when Mr. Haynes bravely faced the uncertain outcome, resting in the divine comfort of the 23rd psalm and other passages of scripture, confident that every thing was for the best. The minister held up in brief review the strong character of the man, his "valiant fight against disease, his cordiality and courtesy, the friendliness of his nature and above all his unconquerable soul."

He also spoke with comforting words to the wife, who had risen so bravely to aid her husband in his struggle, to the only son and to those of the family circle, who were closely touched in this death.

Rev. Ross closed the services by reading the beautiful hymn "Ca-

A long line of autos proceeded to the Washington cemetery where burial was made in the family lot.

The pall-bearers were: Hon. C. A. Reid, Dr. Loring Brock, Messrs. E. M. Edwards, E. J. Light, W. M. Campbell, H. C. Anthony, Chas. Lewis.

The flowers were magnificent, coming from friends far and near. Among the special designs were numbered floral emblems from the B. P. O. E. and Junior Order United American Mechanics, autumn basket from the Frank L. Stutson Co., double casket sprays from the men of the Haynes Furniture Co., H. S. Boy's Glee Club, Chi Delta Chi Girls; Junior Class of the High School, the L. L. Club.

Among relatives and friends who were called here were the father, Mr. Jacob Haynes, sister, Mrs. Harlow Barnhart, Mr. Barnhart and sons, from Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Grant, of Grove City; Mr. Glenn Patton and family of Youngstown; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fisher, Mrs. Florence Barnhart, New Vienna; Mr. Charles Durnell, Bainbridge; Messrs. Edward and Arthur Manning, Harrisburg, Judge Bitzer, Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hunsicker, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers, Mrs. Radcliff, Mrs. Anderson, Williamsport; Mr. Will Haynes, a brother and wife, Toledo; Rev. Ross and Rev. Hennes; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barnhardt, Chillicothe.

MOUNTAIN OF STRAW READY FOR SHIPMENT

More than 100 car loads of baled straw have been stacked on the old fair grounds, east of the East End school building, awaiting shipment to the American Strawboard Company at Circleville, or some other point where the firm has a factory.

The straw, which has been coming in from all over the surrounding territory for many weeks, is not protected by shelter, but is left out in the open, and much of it is damp. However, this does not injure it materially for the manufacture into cardboard.

The straw has been paid for and is piled on the old fair grounds at the risk of the American Strawboard. However, fire dangers are comparatively small, owing to the fact that the straw is damp, and baled.

STINSON SCHOOL RECITAL

The analytical and interpretative recital at the Stinson School of Music Wednesday evening was one of the most enjoyable and instructive ever given. The program was prefaced with ensemble piano numbers by the first grade students, who entered heart and soul into the work of playing with other pianos.

The rhythmic effects as well as interpretation by such young children was wonderful. The children joined in singing in some of the numbers.

The advanced students' work was very interesting to them as well as the audience, because of the analysis and interpretation and reading of the poems written by Schubert, transcribed by the most wonderful pianist and composer, Liszt given in Mrs. Eldora Stinson's natural manner, following along the lines of the late Wm. H. Sherwood, under whom Mrs. Stinson studied for eighteen summers.

The students are very enthusiastic over the anticipation of the monthly analytical and interpretative recitals which broadens the student along these, as well as historical lines.

THIS WOMAN'S FOOD DIDN'T TASTE RIGHT

But Since She Has Been Taking
Tanlac Her Appetite Has Come Back and She Eats Fine Now.

"Tanlac has improved my health so much that I think it is the best medicine I ever took in my life," said Mrs. H. B. Hopkins, 615 South Second street, Ironton, O.

"I was all run down and weak before I took Tanlac and I couldn't do my work," Mrs. Hopkins continued. "My appetite was very poor and no matter what kind of a fine dish was fixed for me it didn't taste right. After eating gas would form in my stomach and I felt bloated."

"I read so much about Tanlac that finally I tried it. It certainly did help me. I have a fine appetite now and I'm not distressed after eating like I was before."

"I sleep soundly every night, too, and the headaches I used to have are all gone."

If you are not feeling right why don't you try Tanlac and improve your health like Mrs. Hopkins says she has? You can get Tanlac at Blackmar & Tanquary's drug store, Frank Christopher's drug store or C. E. Haver's drug store. Advt.

BIBLE STUDENT URGES OLD TIME RELIGION

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cincinnati, O., November 16.—The greatest outstanding need of the church today is a revival of old time religion, according to Rev. R. Howard Taylor, of Chicago, who spoke today before the Ohio Adult Bible Class convention being held in Norwood, a suburb.

He quoted Dr. Malcolm L. McLeod, of New York, as stating that "the Family Altar League will do more to make America great than one hundred battleships," and a prominent statesman as saying, "If we ever expect to save America we must press the force of our endeavor across the threshold of our American homes."

"The decline of spiritual life," said Dr. Taylor, "in the churches began when the family Bible was placed on the shelf and the fires dampened on the altars. The pastor of a church of a leading denomination, composed of a thousand members with three hundred homes, became greatly alarmed a year ago over the spiritual condition of his church. Upon investigation it was learned that only 30 out of the 300 homes reported that they had any semblance of home religion. At a conference of prominent evangelists last summer, the consensus of opinion was that this would not be an average. They held that only about seven per cent of the Christian homes of America make any attempt to have worship in the home."

DRUNK ONCE MORE LANDS IN PRISON

William Nichols, farm laborer, who has served time for forgery, being sent up from Ross county, was picked up by Chief Moore, Friday morning, after the man had attracted quite a little attention by his walk and action.

Nichols stood on the street corner and deliberately took a long "pull" from a bottle, and had become somewhat noisy.

On the way over to the county jail he informed Chief Moore that he intended to give him some trouble. "Go ahead, I'm ready!" said the Chief, but Nichols walked along very quietly to the county jail to remain until he recovered from the Chillicothe booze.

Farm products are too valuable to feed to the rats and other rodents

You have been urged to do your part in conserving the country's food supply. Two-dollar wheat and other high priced grains are too precious to waste. Place around barns and granaries and your premises will soon be rid of all "enemy" rodents. It is safe to use and is preferable to most other rat poisons because it dries up the victim without leaving any odor. Price 25 cents.

Rat and Roach Paste

SAYS THE CHURCHES HAVE NOT ARISEN TO EMERGENCY OF WAR

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 15.—Churches have not risen to the emergency created by the war, nor have they seized the attention of the nations, according to E. O. Sellars, of Chicago, who is here as one of the principal speakers of the Ohio Adult Bible Class convention, which will be held at Norwood, a suburb, tomorrow and Friday.

Mr. Sellars is just back from several months spent amid the camps of England and France. He is warm in praise of the work of the Y. M. C. A. and makes a special plea for leaders and supplies.

"The men at the front," he says, "are up and out against formality and unreality, but they take off their hats to a real man and are responsive to a straightforward message, just as much so as they were three years ago. In other words, there is no evidence of a religious revival, although the churches are confronted with the most wonderful opportunity ever known."

"The horrors of war, the constant sight of wounds and suffering, the dull apprehension of the magnitude of the task, have affected the religious thinking of the British nation, but the struggle and sacrifice of three years have not dulled the spiritual enthusiasm. Our workers in France are heroically facing a gigantic task."

What is needed is supplies and men with executive and organizing ability who will be able to endure the task and surroundings which will demand a maximum of heroic devotion on their part."

The convention is the third annual gathering held under the auspices of the Ohio Sunday School association and will be attended by delegates from all parts of the state.

Eleven separate sessions have been crowded into the two-day convention.

There will be a bureau of general information and college registration which will be of special service to men desiring information as to Americans in military or war relief service in France.

GAS ATTACKS KILL RODENTS SAY OFFICERS

French Officers at Camp Sherman Declare Sleeping Men Have Been Attacked by the French Rats. Notes About Big Camp.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., November 16.—Millions of rats infest the trenches and dugouts in Europe and millions of them are killed whenever there is a gas attack, according to French officers fresh from the trenches who came here a few days ago to instruct the selective draft soldiers here in trench warfare.

Trench and dug-out rats are the big fellows like the wharf rats of this country. Efforts to get rid of them have proved in vain but the gas attacks have been found the most effective means. Unable to reach a nook or cranny where the gas will not penetrate, they are innocent victims of clouds aimed at destroying soldiers of the Allies, who have gas masks to protect themselves.

Rat hunts afford about the only sport the men get in dugouts, some of which are 20 or 30 feet underground. "Shining" them as the expert frog hunter "shines" frogs is one method found effective in getting good bags. When a brilliant light is turned on a rat, he is bewildered and the hunter, armed with a club, has but to beat his quarry.

French officers say they know of incidents where rats attacked sleeping

ON THE BANKS O' DEER CREEK

BY JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY.

On the banks o' Deer Crick! There's the place fer me!
Worter shadin' past ye jes as clair as kin be—
See yer shadder in it, and the shadder o' the sky,
And the shadder o' the buzzard as he goes a-lazein' by;
Shadder o' the pizen-vines, and shadder o' the trees—
And I put-nigh said the shadder o' the sunshine and the breeze!
Well—I never seen the ocean ner I never seen the sea:
On the banks o' Deer Crick's grand enough fer me!

On the banks o' Deer Crick—mile or two from town—
'Long up where the mill-race comes a-loafin' down—
Like to git up in there—'mongst the sycamores—
And watch the worter at the dam, a frothin' as she pours;
Crawl out on some old log, with my hook and line,
Where the fish is jes so thick you kin see 'em shine
As they flicker round yer bait, coaxin' you to jerk,
Tel yer tired ketchin' o' 'em, mighty nigh, as work!

On the banks o' Deer Crick!—Allus my delight
Jes to be around there—take it day er night!
Watch the snipes and kildeer footin' half the day—
Er these 'ere little water-bugs shootin' ever'way!
Snakefeeders glanchin' round, er dartin' out o' sight;
And dew-fall, and bull frogs, and lightnin'-bugs at night—
Stars up through the tree-tops—er in the crick below—
And smell o' mussrat through the dark clean from the old b'y-o!

Er take a tromp some Sund'y, say, 'way up to "Johnson's Hole,"
And find where he's had a fire, and hid his fishin'-pole;
Have yer "dog-leg," with ye and yer pipe and "cut-and-dry"—
Pocketful o' corn-bred and slug er two o' rye—
Soak yer hide in sunshine and waller in the shade—
Like the Good Book tells us—"where there's none to make afraid!"
Well!—I never seen the ocean ner I never seen the sea—
On the banks o' Deer Crick's grand enough fer me!

(The above poem appeared in the last issue of the London (O.) Madison County Democrat, being among a collection of Riley Poems in the possession of H. L. McCafferty, an admirer of Mr. Riley, and now surveyor of Madison county.)

G.C.KIDNER, Prop

men. Completely exhausted from long and hard work, soldiers have fallen asleep so soundly that pieces were bitten from their ears, nose and hands without awakening them. There are some instances, too, the French officers say, of the battle-bound soldiers, making a feast off rats. While none of the Camp Sherman men admit having had a "rat pig" they declare friends have told them it is very good when one is hungry and food from the rear is not forthcoming.

Many odd queries come to officers and clerks at Major General E. F. Glenn's headquarters. Several days ago an Ohio ruralist wrote that So-and-So owed him $235, had promised to pay it before going to Camp Sherman, and had failed. "Can you hold it out of his pay so I can get my money as I need it?" the creditor asked. The questioner was told the pay could not be held out.

It was just this week that a Pennsylvania insane asylum asked if a certain man could be located at Camp Sherman. The message said he had been sent to the asylum as a life charge as the outgrowth of a murder case. He escaped and it was stated had been sent to Camp Sherman and now is believed to be a sergeant there.

Christmas packages sent to Camp Sherman's boys should be mailed several days before Christmas if they are to be received on time. A week or ten days to get the gift safely to its destination is advised.

Even now the amount of mail matter to and from Camp Sherman is enormous. There will be very few of the 35,000 men who will not get a Christmas present and hundreds are here who would feel slighted if they get less than a dozen. This big amount of matter, practically all of it bulky, will be in addition to the usual quantities of Christmas letters and cards.

While every effort will be made to keep mail moving, congestion is foreseen and Christmas packages should be sent early enough that three or four days delay will not make them belated gifts.

IRISH SLOW UP.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Irish immigration to the United States almost has ceased since the war began. Government statistics showed that in the first nine months of this year only 83 Irishmen came to this country from their native land. During the same period of 1916, 2,015 came.

CONSCRIPT LABOR

(By American Press)

Philadelphia, Nov. 16.—The United States must speed up its shipbuilding program or lose the war and all that depends on it. In the opinion of Admiral Francis T. Bowles, who spoke as the representative of the emergency fleet corporation, before the chamber of commerce here, Admiral Bowles intimated that a draft might be resorted to to obtain shipbuilding workmen and mechanics. "If we can not produce the ships that we need," he said, "by the spirit of our democracy, we shall have to obtain this vital result otherwise." Admiral Bowles declared people in this country must be brought to a realization of the fact that without ships the "rules in process of formation would be helpless."

NONESSENTIALS
PUT IN A LIST
BY WAR BOARD

(By American Press)

Washington, Nov. 16.—Denial of rail transportation to more than 500 commodities classed as nonessential was recommended to the government by the railroad war board. At the same time the board put out a statement declaring the country's railroads at the present rate of increase in traffic will be unable to meet demands that will be made on them this winter.

The commodities included in the recommendation were not made public.

"Both the public and the management of the railroads must courageously face the fact," said the statement, written by Fairfax Harrison, chairman of the board, "that under the trying conditions which will develop this winter, it probably will become impossible for the carriers to handle all the traffic which the public can offer."

The list of commodities classed as nonessential was made up by a committee of railroad traffic officers at the request of Robert S. Lovett, the government director of priority of transportation. A copy was turned over also to Fuel Administrator Garfield, who is contemplating the curtailment of coal supplies to industries not necessary to the public welfare.

The list contains 459 commodities whose transportation, it is declared, could be dispensed with without any great inconvenience to the public and 75 which it is held the public could dispense with, but not without inconvenience. "Statistics just made available," says a statement issued, "show that in the months of April—August inclusive—the first five months of the war, our railroads handled 16 per cent more freight traffic than in the same months of 1916. The traffic handled in these five months was 50 per cent greater than moved in the same months of 1915, and exceeded the total traffic moved in any year prior to 1904."

"Perhaps the most remarkable figures are those regarding the movement of coal. In the six months from May to October there were moved 1,000,000 more carloads of anthracite than in the same months of 1916, an increase of 18 per cent, and 751,000 more cars of bituminous and lignite, also an 18 per cent increase. A total of 116,000 carloads of freight had to be moved to the national army and national guard camps."

TRAINMAN TALKS

(By American Press)

Cleveland, Nov. 16.—"There is not going to be a railroad strike; don't even imagine it for a minute." With that statement W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, which is voting on a demand for increased wages, registered his faith in President Wilson's policy. Lee intimated the trainmen will firmly demand higher wages, and added, "and you know as well as I that the railroads won't grant them without increased revenues."

Lee called as a "pipe dream" the suggestion that the president might draft the railway employees and force them to work at army wages. "There is no law for such action," said Lee. "The government's policy points the other way. The whole trend has been to raise existing wages of necessary employees when the government asks their unstinted co-operation to win the war."

MENACE TAMPICO
OIL FIELD LAND

(By American Press)

Washington, Nov. 16.—International apprehension has been aroused by the apparent determination of President Carranza of Mexico to drive the long-unmolested Manuel Palaez and his little band of rebels from the oil fields near Tampico.

There is evident in allied legations and embassies here a feeling that German influence had played a part in starting this move, which may prove embarrassing to the Kaiser's enemies.

General Manuel Dieguez has been sent into the field at the head of a considerable force with orders to clear the country between San Luis Potosi and Tampico of rebels. Official reports reaching Washington indicate the effectiveness of his work. Already he has defeated one body of rebel troops and killed Magdalena Cedillo, one of the two Cedillo brothers, who long have been the leaders of the revolutionists in that part of Mexico.

Unless ordered by the war department to change his plans, it is expected General Dieguez will move toward the coast and attack Palaez.

Representatives of foreign governments display more concern over the news of the campaign against Palaez than they have over any recent development in Mexican affairs.

The fear now frankly expressed is that a determined action just now by the Carranza government may result in the long feared attempt to destroy the oil properties. In some quarters here, however, it is believed that Carranza will hesitate to drive the rebels to that point, in view of the political and economic dangers involved.

KAISER PLEASED

(By American Press)

Amsterdam, Nov. 16.—The German emperor, according to a Berlin dispatch, in addressing the U-boat crews in the Adriatic and referring to the development of the submarines, said that a voyage of three or four weeks now was an every-day occurrence and declared that the development of the U-boats had not reached its highest point. He expressed gratification at the amount of the tonnage sunk in the Mediterranean, which, he said, showed that the U-boats had fulfilled what had been expected of them. Submarine warfare would have a decisive part in the final outcome of the war, the emperor declared, and would not be stopped until the enemy was vanquished.

"IT'S WONDERFUL"
DECLARES MRS.
DAVID WESTALL

Wife of Former B. & O. Official Pays Glowing Tribute to Nerv-Worth.

Mrs. Westall's husband was successively superintendent of B. & O. shops at Zanesville, and Newark, O., and Martinsburg, W. Va. Mr. Westall is superintending important government work in the South, and Mrs. Westall is residing at the Hotel Vivian, Hagerstown, Md. A short time ago Mrs. Westall made a test of Nerv-Worth and so beneficial were the results that she gave the following statement:

"I have suffered with extreme nervousness for years, followed by sleeplessness, despondency and low vitality, due to weak nerve force. I have had the services of numerous physicians and tried all the remedies I could learn of but gained no relief whatever."

"I learned from some friends of the great virtues of Nerv-Worth and concluded to try it. Since using the first bottle I am very decidedly improved and I shall continue its use, believing it will entirely eliminate my nervous ills. I cheerfully recommend it to all as it has proved a wonderful medicine to me."

WHAT ARMY OFFICERS
THINK OF "Y" WORK

"We used to say there were three general branches of the army—the cavalry, the infantry and the artillery. Now we would say there were four branches—the cavalry, the infantry, the artillery and the Y. M. C. A."

This statement was made the other day by General Slocum, at Fort Oglethorpe, near Chattanooga, Tennessee, to Dr. W. B. Weatherford, secretary for the southeast of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A.

An officer at Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., met one of the War Work Y. M. C. A. Secretaries, from the southeastern department headquarters at that camp a few days ago. When the Y. M. C. A. man was introduced, the officer said:

"Oh, Y. M. C. A., eh, well take it from me, there are a lot of fellows in the army who are hoping they can die rich just on purpose to leave their money to the Y. M. C. A. That's what they think of it in the army."

MAN TROUBLED FOR TWO YEARS

No one should suffer backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints, swollen, sore muscles, when relief can be easily had. James McCreary, Berrien Center, Mich., says he was troubled with kidney and bladder trouble for two years. He used several kinds of medicine without relief, but Foley Kidney Pills cured him.
